1. If you are a provider of child care (and other types of care), you must have a written agreement with the departments of Health and Human Services (HHS) and the Department of Community Affairs (DCA). These agreements must include:

   - A clear description of the services you will provide.
   - The number of children you will serve.
   - The qualifications and training of your staff.
   - The payment methods and schedule.
   - Compliance with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development (DLWD).

2. If you are a provider of child care, you must comply with the following requirements:

   - You must provide safe and healthy environments for children.
   - You must ensure that children are supervised by adequately trained staff.
   - You must maintain accurate records of children's progress.
   - You must ensure that children's dietary needs are met.

3. If you are a provider of child care, you must comply with the following requirements:

   - You must ensure that children are fed a balanced diet.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate rest.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate exercise.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate mental stimulation.

4. If you are a provider of child care, you must comply with the following requirements:

   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate medical care.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate dental care.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate social services.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate educational services.

5. If you are a provider of child care, you must comply with the following requirements:

   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate transportation services.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate recreation services.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate counseling services.
   - You must ensure that children are provided with adequate mental health services.