

New Jersey Division on Civil Rights Housing Unit Internship Application

The New Jersey Division on Civil Rights (DCR) seeks two highly motivated legal interns with a passion for protecting civil rights, to participate in its internship program. The internship will last 8-10 weeks with an estimated and flexible start date of on or around January 20, 2024. Start date will coincide with established HR internship orientations. This is an unpaid opportunity of a minimum 21 hours per week and course credit options may be available.

This internship offers experience to students interested in learning about DCR's Housing Unit work and enforcement of the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination in housing to protect the people of New Jersey from discrimination and bias-based harassment in housing.

Investigators in this unit investigate complaints in a thorough and objective manner, including by reviewing relevant documents, interviewing witnesses and gathering evidence to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the LAD has been violated. The intern will report to an investigator in the Housing Unit and assist in these investigations.

Qualifications:

- Completion of at least the equivalent of two semesters of college coursework (not including high school AP classes) by the time they begin this internship.
- Proficiency using Microsoft Office Suite and Outlook scheduling.
- Applicants should have strong writing skills, attention to detail, ability to multitask, and interpersonal skills
- Applicants should be collaborative, open-minded, enthusiastic, hardworking and devoted to the mission of DCR.
