WEBINAR

Program Summary

For most people who live in New Jersey, the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission (MVC) is the most widely-known State agency. This program will cover the history and background of the MVC, the areas that the MVC regulates, licensing and registrations, and how to read a driver history abstract. The presenters will also address recent developments at the MVC, including transactions that have moved online (pre- and post-pandemic), REAL ID, status neutral licensing, and transportation network companies.

Eligibility

This program is open to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety and county prosecutors' offices.

Faculty

DAG Amy Chung is an Assistant Section Chief of the Transportation, Construction & Condemnation (TCC) Section of the Division of Law and represents the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission and the New Jersey Department of Transportation. Previously, she was an Assistant Section Chief of the Treasury-Finance & Benefits Section, where she handled complex pensions and health benefits matters; she also was a line deputy in the TCC Section. DAG Chung has briefed and/or argued more than 50 appeals in federal and State courts, including five in the Supreme Court of New Jersey. She clerked for the Honorable Karen Nelson Moore of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and graduated from Harvard Law School and Harvard-Radcliffe Colleges.

DAG Jennifer Jaremback serves in the Division of Law's Transportation, Construction & Condemnation (TCC) Section, where she primarily represents the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission (MVC). She advises the MVC on a variety of matters that impact its statutory and regulatory authority, and reviews regulations and agreements. She has also briefed and argued a number of cases before the Superior Court, Appellate Division, and litigates matters in the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law and the Superior Court. Before joining the TCC Section, DAG Jaremback served in the Division of Law's DCF Practice Group, where she litigated child abuse and neglect matters. DAG Jaremback clerked in Mercer County Superior Court for the Honorable Maria M. Sypek, P.J.Cr. She graduated magna cum laude from The College of New Jersey, and received her J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.5 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.
